

FLIGHT CAMP 2017

Families Laughing In Groups Hoping Together
Weekend Retreat for families who has a child that has been diagnosed with cancer.

Friday– Sunday~ April 28– 30, 2017

This is an opportunity for families who are experiencing similar circumstances to be together for an extended period of time away from the hospital/dinic. Families will be able to share new experiences, create memories together and enjoy nature. This is for immediate family members only. Spots are limited. There is no cost to attend.

To reserve your family's spot, please
RSVP to Sharin Nelson, CCC at snelson@childrenscancercenter.org
We welcome families who have not had the chance to attend first. If your family has attended in the past, please RSVP if your family would still like to participate if there are openings. This includes families currently off treatment.

This is a Children's Cancer Center event. The camp is held at Dream Oaks Camp in Bradenton. Families will need to travel to camp however everything else is provided at no cost—cabins, food, activities, etc.
